The Iconic India Gate

Start your journey at India Gate, the famous war memorial located in the heart of the city. It is a symbol of bravery and courage with a beautiful view of Rajpath from its base. If you're feeling adventurous, try the horse carriage ride and capture the moment.

Horse Carriage Ride

Enjoy a horse carriage ride around India Gate while admiring the beautiful view of Rajpath.

Kids Zone

Kids love the rides and swings placed beside India Gate, making it an ideal place for family visits.

Night View

India Gate looks stunning at night, lit up with beautiful lights that add to its charm and beauty.

Local Food Scene

Delhi is home to some of the best street food in the world. Our hotel concierge has curated a list of the best local restaurants that you must try. Enjoy a delicious lunch in a vibrant atmosphere.

Parathe Wali Gali

Indulge in delicious freshly prepared parathas at this famous alley in old Delhi.

Karim's

One of the most iconic restaurants in Delhi, Karim's is known for its mouth-watering Mughlai cuisine that includes biryanis and curries.

Chaat at Bengali Sweet House

A local favorite, Bengali Sweet House is known for its chaat, a savory snack consisting of potatoes, chutneys, and spices.

Natraj Dahi Bhalle Wala

Try the famous Dahi Bhalle, a curd-soaked bhalla (dumpling) served with spicy chutney, at Natraj.

The Lotus Temple

The Lotus Temple is a beautiful house of worship that is famous for its stunning architecture inspired by the lotus flower. It is situated on a sprawling green landscape and is known for its serene ambience.

History

The temple was completed in 1986 and features 27 free-standing "petals" that are made of marble. The temple allows visitors from all religions to offer their prayers.

Architecture

The temple is designed to look like a lotus flower with three circles of petals that open up to a large hall inside. The temple is made of marble, concrete, and glass and features nine pools that reflect the serene environment.

Visit Tips

- Remove your shoes before entering the temple
- Photography is not allowed inside the temple
- Best time to visit is during sunset for stunning views

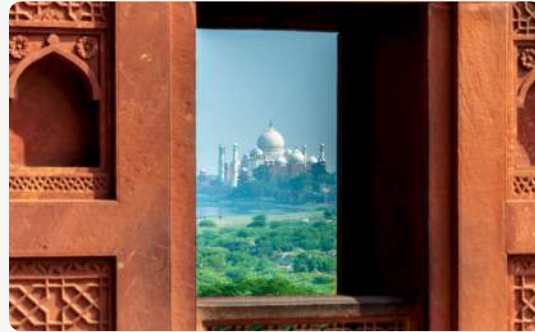

The Taj Mahal - Agra Day Trip

No visit to Delhi is complete without a trip to the world-renowned Taj Mahal, located in Agra. It is a must-visit attraction that is rich in history, culture, and architecture. You will be picked up early in the morning for a full day tour.

Sunrise at Taj Mahal

The Taj Mahal looks stunning at sunrise with a golden hue that is reflected in the calm waters of the surrounding pool.

Taj Mahal View from Agra Fort

For a panoramic view of the Taj Mahal, visit the Agra Fort which is located across the River Yamuna. You can marvel at the beautiful architecture of the Taj and enjoy the views.

The Gardens

The gardens surrounding the mausoleum are a beautiful addition to the Taj Mahal's charm. The manicured lawns and beautiful flowers will leave you feeling peaceful and relaxed.

Agra Fort - A UNESCO Heritage Site

Agra Fort is a massive structure that was built by Mughal Emperor Akbar in the mid-16th century. It was initially built for military purposes, but later became a palace, and eventually served as a prison.

History

Agra Fort is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and has been declared a monument of national importance by the Archaeological Survey of India.

Attractions

The fort has several buildings, including the Jahangiri Mahal, the Khas Mahal, and the Sheesh Mahal that are famous for their intricate designs and cultural significance.

Fun Fact

The Agra Fort was where Shah Jahan, the builder of the Taj Mahal, was imprisoned by his son Aurangzeb. He spent the last years of his life gazing at the Taj Mahal from his prison window.

Old Delhi Market and the Red Fort

Chandni Chowk in Old Delhi is a shopper's paradise, with narrow lanes full of colorful fabrics, spices, and jewelry. The Red Fort is a massive structure made of red sandstone, designed to protect Delhi from invading Mongol armies.

Chandni Chowk Market

One of the most famous markets in Delhi, Chandni Chowk is a delight for all shoppers and foodies. You can buy everything from silk saris to spices and enjoy local street food like jalebis, samosas, and lassi.

The Red Fort

The Red Fort is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and was built by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan in the mid-17th century. It is a beautiful example of Mughal architecture and features several buildings like the Diwan-i-Am, the Diwan-i-Khas, and the Moti Masjid.

Visit Tips

- Wear comfortable shoes and clothing
- Visit the Red Fort in the evening to see the light and sound show
- Visit the spice market in Chandni Chowk for a unique olfactory experience
